Dear [REDACTED]

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of August 9, 1947 and to express my regret that I have been unable to give you a "yes" or "no" answer prior to this time.

The classification problem which was to be settled when I interviewed you in Washington is still not settled. However, in the meantime, certain changes have taken place in our London Bureau which has made it necessary to fill the existing vacancies at once without waiting for the time normally required for recruitment and processing.

I regret very much that this change in the situation precludes my making you an offer at this time. I sincerely hope that this delay will not jeopardize the other two jobs which you mentioned in your letter.

Your interest in working for our organization is sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,

STATINTL
